Information on the proposed School Street for Allenby Primary School and Dormers Wells High School

Over the next few weeks, Ealing Council's School Travel team will be letting people in the local area know about proposals to implement a School Street for your school.

Since 2020 we have been implementing School Streets, where the roads around a school are closed to most vehicles for a short period of time (usually around an hour) at the start and end of the school day. By April 2025, pupils, parents and neighbours of 41 schools and education providers will be benefitting from the scheme – that's almost 19,000 children and young people across the borough.

With fewer cars on the roads School Streets help pupils feel safer on their school journey, increase walking, cycling and other forms of active travel, and improve air quality in the borough by reducing congestion at peak times.

A School Street for Allenby Primary School and Dormers Wells High School

So far, the boroughs School Streets programme has seen:

- a reduction in school-related car use of up to 18%
- an increase in active travel (walking, scooting, cycling) of up to 29%.

Now that we have a proven track record of success, we will be progressing with Schools Street schemes for schools and education providers in suitable locations, unless there is a compelling reason not to. Suitability is defined by the ability of the area to be able to deal with the likely traffic effects of a scheme during its operational hours.

We have assessed the location of Allenby Primary School and Dormers Wells High School as suitable. We're now asking the school and local community if they know of any unique local circumstances we might have missed, that we should consider before confirming the scheme. The plan and times of the proposed School Street are on the next page.
